WELCOME

to Café Pacific

We are delighted to welcome you to Café Pacific where our ethos is “fresh and local”, this is encapsulated not only in our home grown plants but also in the food which is homemade daily in our kitchens and bakery.

We grow a wide selection of top quality garden plants ranging from shrubs, rhododendrons, heathers, herbaceous perennials, some annuals and of course, Pacific Delphiniums at our nursery in Little Hay.

From small beginnings as a nursery in Great Barr named Pacific after the stunning Delphiniums introduced from America, to the gorgeous garden centre, café and farm shop that welcomes you at Streetly today, we thank you for sharing our journey.

Peter and Tom Beharrell

Our TIMELINE

1970

John and Veronica Beharrell, passionate gardeners, began to grow Dianthus in their greenhouse at home in Streetly. The kitchen table where they began taking cuttings still resides by the tills today!

1977

John and Veronica were asked by Les to buy Pacific; there were two members of staff at that time, one being Gary Mytton, who still works at Pacific after 44 years of service.

2004

The 'new' garden centre was opened.

2007

The Pantry was opened.

2018

The extension of today's cafe was completed.

1973

John and Veronica bought a cottage in Presteigne where they grew heathers and brought these back in a small trailer, selling them to local shops and into the Birmingham Wholesale Market. One of their first customers was Les Knowles, then owner of Pacific Nurseries.

1980

The nursery business was expanded by the addition of the redundant nursery in Little Hay. In the next 20 years, the wholesale nursery and retail sides of the business were expanded, improved and developed until finally planning permission was granted for a new Garden Centre.

2005

Cafe Pacific was launched from the original potting shed.

2017

We were awarded the prestigious title of 'Best Plant Area in the Midlands' by the Garden Centre Association and we were runner up for the National Award.

OUR Vision

What's next, who knows? We continue to strive to be better. The nursery business grows steadily and provides plants for 70 garden centres across the greater Midlands area. It is a privilege to work in a wonderful industry with great customers and staff alike.
